SPREADING THE WORD AND LOVE OF JESUS

Rub a Dub Dub Book Donation to Ronald McDonald Houses

Rub a Dub Dub is a children's book written by cancer survivor Debbie Taylor Williams, an author, national keynote speaker and founder of Hill Country Ministries.

Having gone through chemotherapy, a lobectomy, radiation and ongoing treatment for non-smoker's stage 3 lung cancer, Debbie knows the value of comfort and encouragement and is gifting her book, Rub A Dub Dub, to children at Ronald McDonald Houses across America.

Molly Berg, Program Manager at RMH House Charities Greater Houston, says, "Families love Rub a Dub Dub. Our moms especially love doing the hand motions with their children."

Having begun in Houston where Debbie was getting treatment at MD Anderson, Rub a Dub Dub books are now being offered and received by RM Houses across America.

Debbie doesn't want any child to be left out. Would you take a moment to look through Rub a Dub Dub and consider accepting her offer to send free books to the children at your house?
